Dear Senator Shelby:

I hope this letter finds you happy and blessed. I need your assistance and involvement on behalf of my longtime friend, a highly decorated Vietnam Marine, and one of your combat disabled veteran constituents, Mr. Glen Pike of Guntersville, Alabama. Please see the enclosed documents regarding Mr. Pike's application to the Justice Department requesting a Presidential pardon.

I have known Glen Pike for some 40 years as we grew up together in Guntersville and graduated in the Class of 1965 from, at that time, Marshall County High School. Mr. Pike's marital and financial mishaps occurred shortly after his military discharge at which time he was very vulnerable and immature. Regretfully, his unlawful actions prevented him from seeking a career in law enforcement which was his longtime goal and ambition.

It is my sincere belief that Mr. Pike has been punished long enough because of his indiscretions some 30 years ago. Based upon his responsible, law abiding, and very productive life since I truly feel he has earned and richly deserves a Presidential pardon. Please pursue whatever means necessary to reinstate this disabled war hero's American birthright.

Thank you for your genuine support for America's veterans. This veteran deserves your help!

Sincerely,

Frank D. Wilkes

Honor Richard Shelby, Senator
United States Congress
Washington, DC

Dear Senator Shelby:

As A resident of the great State of Alabama, I want to thank you for the outstanding job you are doing for Alabama in Washington.

I spent my entire working career in law-enforcement. I began working as A city policeman for Sheffield in Colbert County. Next I moved to Marion County and began working for the Town of Guin as Assistant Chief of Police for A number of years. Then I joined the Marion County force serving as deputy sheriff for several years. At the age of 47 I was elected Sheriff of Marion County overcoming much opposition. Then I was re-elected Sheriff of Marion County without a run off. My opposition was mounting due to enforcement of the law on many law breakers, which consisted of bootlegging and illegal drugs. Since Marion County was a dry county, bootlegging was very prominent. Also, I was the first Sheriff to start a school program teaching about the danger of illegal drugs. I worked closely with each city in the county Law enforcement and the State of Alabama ABC board raiding bootleggers and taking drugs off the streets and in the rural areas of our county. My desire was to enforce the laws of our land to the fullest.

However, at the end of my second term as Sheriff of Marion County, my opposition cultivated assistance from some of the county's most corrupt law breakers and the law breakers reported to the FBI they had paid me for Protection the sum of $87,000. There were no evidence proven that I had received illegal money. All personal bank accounts were checked, no cash purchases were found and no illegal transactions were found. My county records were up to date and audited without finding any errors.

The court indicted me, and I was charged for "Interference of Commerce - Racketeering and Income Tax evasion on January 4, 1991. Even though the courts had no concrete evidence, and I knew I was not guilty, my attorney convinced me I must plead guilty or my wife, Pauline, would be indicted. At that time Pauline had been diagnosed with terminal bone cancer, and I knew she could not go through the stress of being indicted, therefore I pleaded guilty. I was not allowed to consult with my family prior to making my decision or talk to the federal prosecutor. I felt I was forced to plead guilty for something I knew I was not guilty, and I did not have money for an appeal. My wife expired from bone cancer.

I am now 73 years old, and do not have much more time on this earth. I have been diagnosed with colon cancer, had two strokes, three heart stents, and a pacemaker. Even though I am in poor health, I try to attend church regularly and help my fellow man in every opportunity I encounter. My parents taught me to always do right and I have followed their advice.

I served time in Maxwell Federal Prison for charges that I did not commit. My family and I ask for your assistance in helping me obtain a Presidential Pardon from President Bush. Thanking you for this consideration. I will always be your friend.

Sincerely,

Oliver A. C. Tice

Dear Senator Shelby:

This responds to your letter of November 19, 2008, forwarding Mr. Oliver A. C. Tice's request for a presidential pardon.

Mr. Tice's application was carefully considered in this Department and the White House, and the decision was reached that favorable action was not warranted. His application was therefore denied on March 24, 2008. Mr. Tice will be eligible to submit a new petition for presidential pardon for consideration two years from the date of denial, which would be after March 24, 2010.

Thank you for your interest in this matter.

Re: Presidential Pardon for Richard C. Harper

Dear Sir:

I am a lifelong resident of Covington County, Alabama and have been one of your strongest supporters over the years. In April, 1994, I pled guilty and was sentenced to five years probation for making a false declaration on my federal tax return and was required to pay a fine and restitution. I served my term of probation which was completed in April 1999.

On March 8, 2000, I filed a petition for pardon after completion of sentence with the pardon attorney of the Department of Justice. On May 9, 2000, the pardon attorney requested additional information and that was submitted on July 17, 2000. In December 2000, we wrote the pardon attorney requesting an update on my petition, but to date we have not received any response.

I would be grateful if you could contact the office of the pardon attorney, Department of Justice and help me find out the status of my pardon petition. Also, I would appreciate your assistance in having my pardon petition favorable reviewed. If additional information is needed, I would be glad to provide it. I would just like to know why I have not heard anything from the Department of Justice in over a year.

Thank you for your help.

Sincerely,

Richard C. Harper

Mr. Harper's application for pardon remains under consideration. The processing time for a pardon application can be lengthy, and we can give no assurance that final action will be taken by the President within a particular time frame. Accordingly, we are unable to advise you when Mr. Harper may expect a decision on his application. You may be assured, however, that he will be notified promptly when a final decision is made on his petition.
